

BEST PRACTICE-2

*“Institutional Responsibility towards

Best Practice-2

1. Title of the Best Practice: “Institutional Responsibility towards Society”

2. Objectives:

- i) To channelize the intellectual resources of the College fraternity to reach the marginalized section of the society.
- ii) To craft cohesion with the local people to minimize the gap between the College and society.
- iii) To sensitize students towards social responsibilities.

3. The Context:

F.A. Ahmed College, Garoimari has been trying to offer voluntary service to the marginalized people to vicinity area. Some of the Cells of the College like NSS, Scout & Guide, UBA etc. undertake various outreach programs within the locality. Especially, the NSS Unit undertakes a 7 days long special camp each year in a selected village. Teachers, non-teaching employees and students take part in the practice.

4. The Practice

The College family has been undertaking some outreach programme to make a bridge with the people in the area to minimize gap between the College and neighbouring people. Students along with some guide teachers visit to villages and undergo some societal relates issues. The team visits to the people and interact with households on issues like, faster growth of population, existence of early marriage, defecation facility, brushing or not, schooling etc.

5. Evidence of Success:

Of course, it is a difficult task to proof to be succeeded in this respect. Nevertheless, some of the points are mentioned herewith in support of the phenomena.

- i) The mutualism of the College and the people of vicinity area is an indicator of success in practice of social responsibilities. Sometimes, the institution has been appraised by some stakeholders through letters of appreciation.

ii) Once the camp is over, the local administration is met and informed about problem of the village. Sometimes the authority appreciate the practice that can be stand as evidence of success.

iii) Increasing number of volunteers in the different social activities of NSS can also be considered as evidence of success.

iv) Seeing the past outreach activities of the College, the Health and Family Welfare Department, Govt. of Assam come ahead and sign a MoU with the College to utilise the College intellectual resources for more social activities like MMR & IMR etc.

6. Problems encountered

1. Paucity of funding can be mentioned as the first problem faced in undergoing the practice. Due to shortage of funding, only few volunteer students can be deployed in the activity.

2. The staff and students of the college are ever eager to participate in such activities. But the scheduled academic activities cause paucity of time despite the will. Thus, manpower and time constraints are other major limitations in this regard.
