

Department of English
F.A. Ahmed College, Garoimari

Programme Outcomes

It applies the knowledge of the subject logically in required fields keeping in consideration of the various social, cultural, political and environmental issues. Adequate teaching strategies and measures are adopted to meet the diverse needs of the heterogeneous background of the learners thereby enabling them solve complex problems and exhibit comprehension and understanding of the programmes and apply them in a multidisciplinary environment. It generates awareness of the societal and environmental issues for ensuring the practice of sustainable development. Also acquaints the learners with ethical principles, moral values, professional ethics and responsibilities. Leadership qualities are inculcated, team-spirit as well as a sense of individuality in the learners.